

Press Release

From April 2008, Penguin India will make their wide range of titles available through Gardners Books.

Founded in 1985, Penguin India is the largest English language trade publisher in the Indian subcontinent. Penguin began publishing there in October 1987 with seven titles. Today, the company publishes more than 200 new titles every year and has an active backlist of over 2000 titles.

Headquartered in New Delhi, the company's commercial activity includes the publishing of its own books in the English language, as well as in the regional languages Hindi, Marathi and Urdu.

Penguin India has published across virtually every segment including literature, contemporary Indian fiction, business, politics, biography, film and Bollywood, religion and philosophy, history, health, self-help, cricket ,cookery as well as reference and travel.

With the tie-up with Gardners books Penguin India titles will become more widely available in the UK and Europe.
